

Winter Spiti

26th March to 4th Apr '26

Fees - 48500/-

Day 1

Chandigarh to Narkhanda

Your ten-day Spiti Valley Tour begins as you leave Chandigarh for the Himalayan town of Shimla. Enjoy the comforts of a luxurious Toyota Innova, as your driver takes you from the plains into the mountains at Shimla where you get your first taste of the Himalayas. Shimla today is an attractive blend of a hill, town and holiday resorts. As there is no sightseeing scheduled for this day, you are free to rest at the hotel or you can explore the town on your own.

175 km

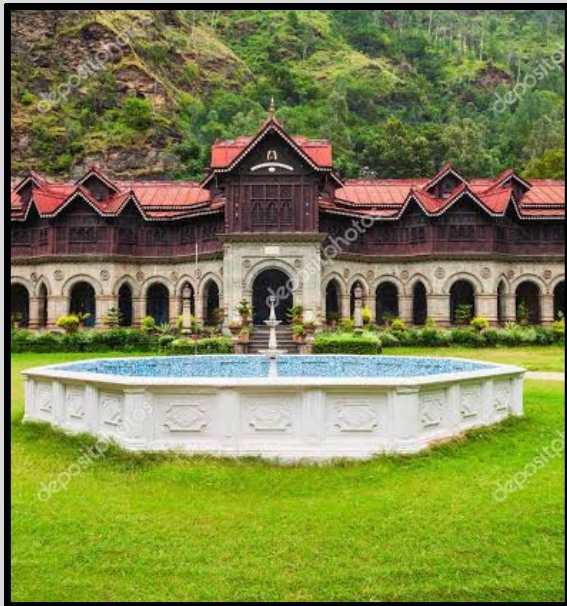

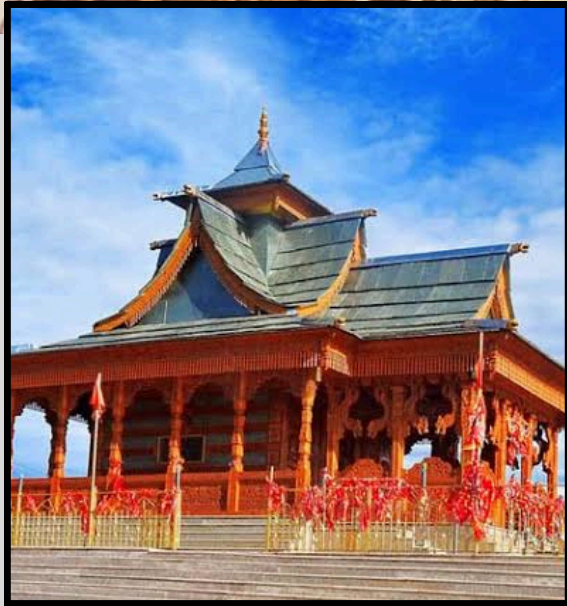

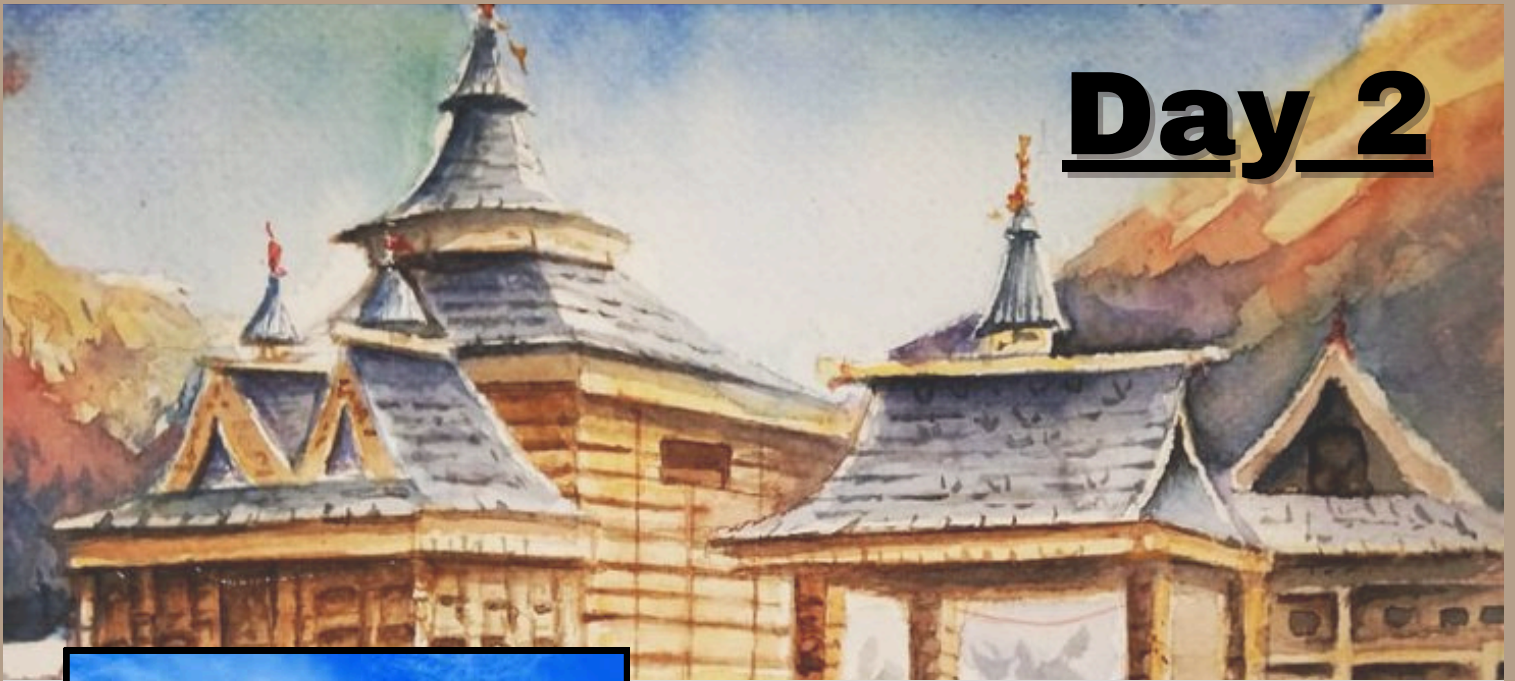

6 hours

8599 ft.

Day 2

Narkhanda to Rakcham

On the second day, we have breakfast, basking in the first rays of the sun, and later head towards Chitkul. Chitkul can be described as one of the most scenic settlements in the valley and the last inhabited village before the India-China border.

This drive from to Chitkul will be one of the most scenic drives you'll have plenty of opportunities to take stunning photographs.

180 km

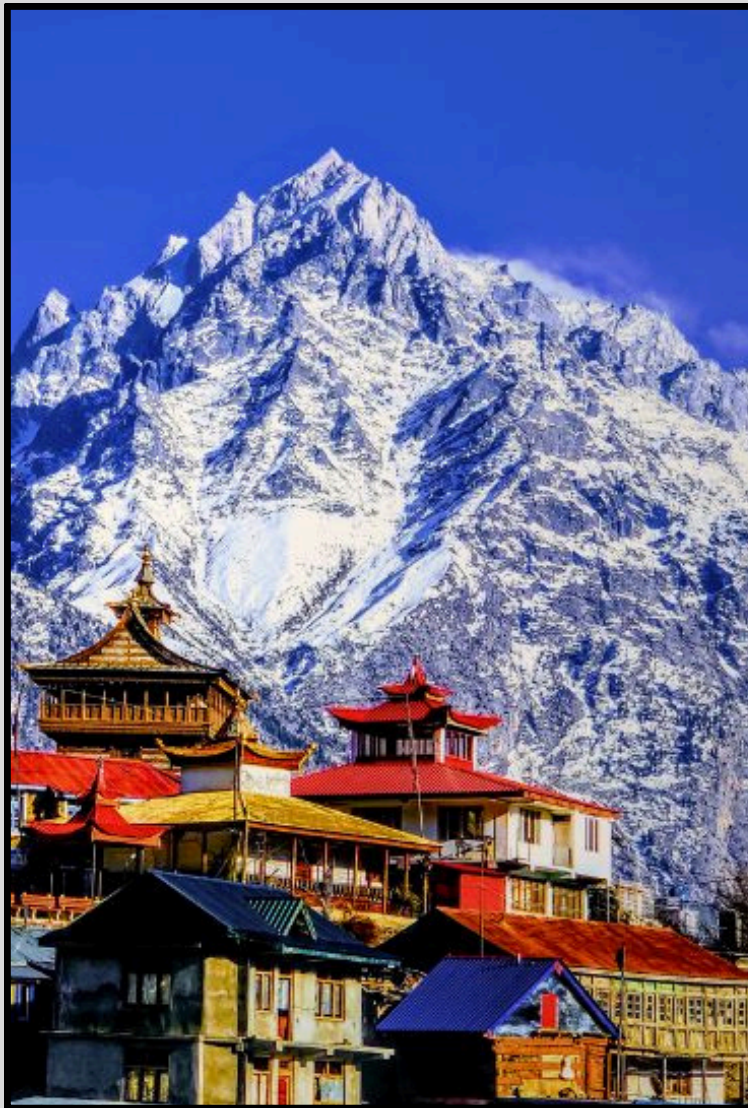

6 hours

10000 ft.

Day 3

Rakcham to kalpa via Chitkul

Drive from Chitkul to Kalpa, enjoying the scenic view of Himalyas. The journey takes you through the stunning Kinnaur Valley, winding through the majestic snow mountains and in the breath-taking vista Satlaj river, Kalpa is offbeat destination, offering a serene and peaceful atmosphere, away from the haustle & bustle of city life. Experience the famous Apple orchids of Kalpa

85 km

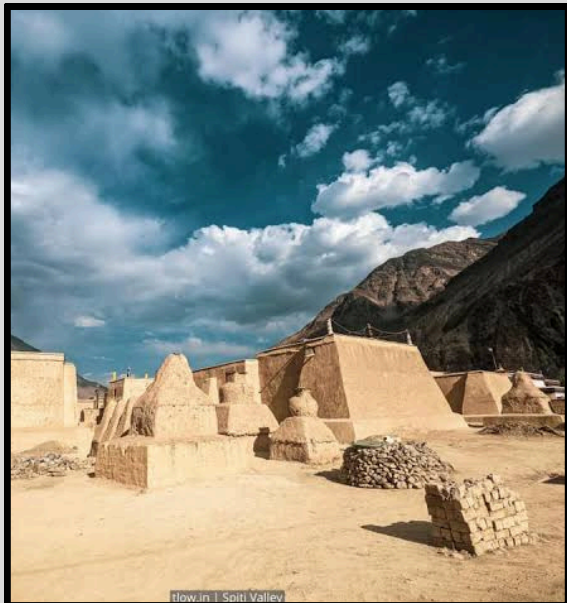

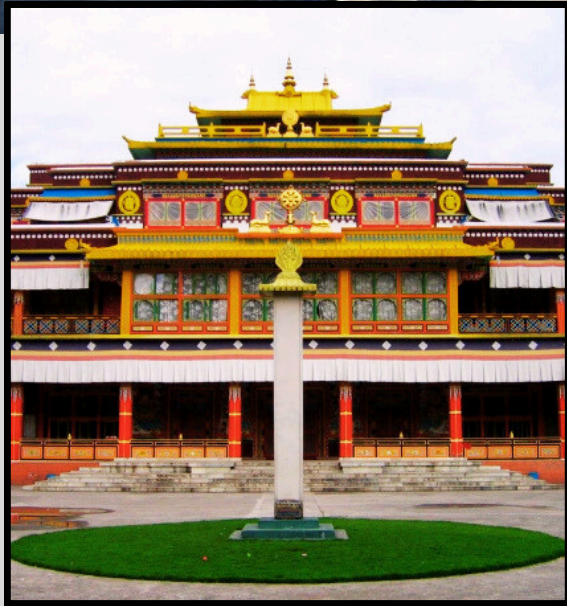

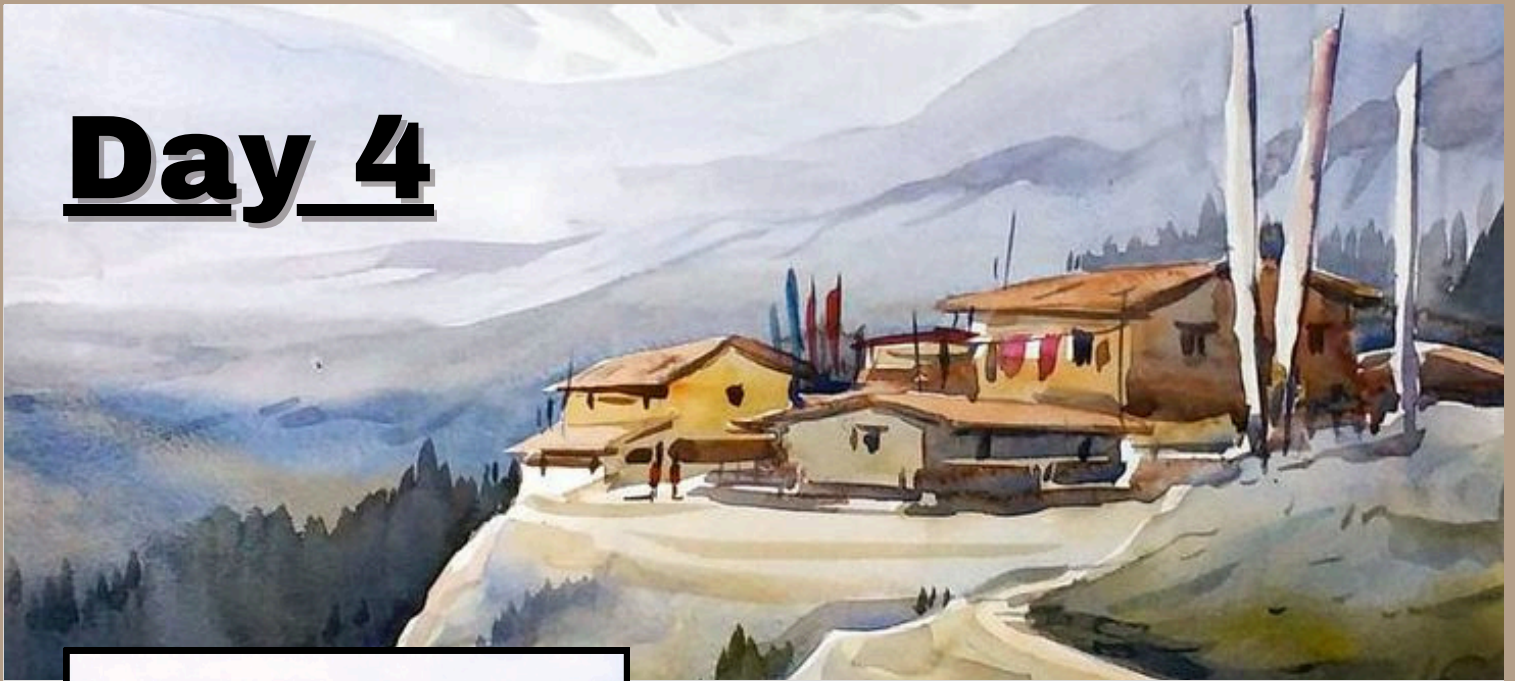

4 hours

11320 ft.

Day 4

Kalpa to Tabo

Today, the landscape changes from green-mountains to desert-mountains.

We continue our journey through Kinnaur and enter the Hindustan-Tibet Highway – often called the world's most adventurous roads.

We drive via Puh, which is the last fuel station on this road before Kaza. After a fuel refill, we drive towards Nako, a village situated at 3600m, finally making our way to Tabo.

100 km

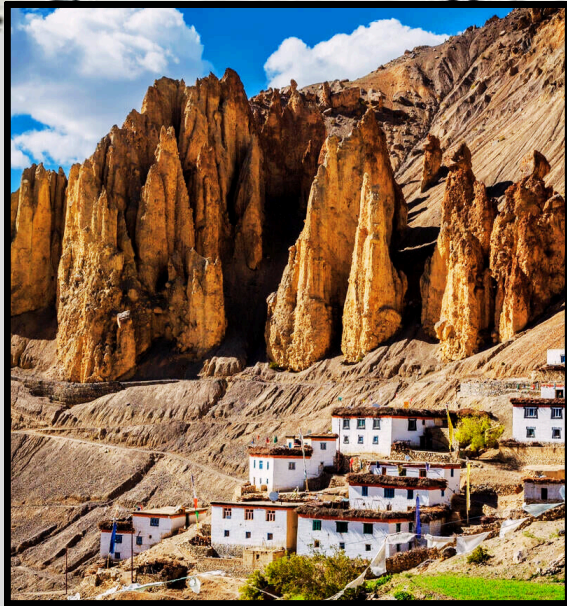

5 hours

10760 ft.

Day 5

Tabo to Langza

Langza is a small, picturesque village located in the Spiti Valley of Himachal Pradesh, Langza is home to a 1,000-year-old Buddha statue, which is a major attraction.

Langza is also known for its fossils of plants and animals, which are millions of years old. The village offers breathtaking views of the surrounding mountains and valleys. Langza is a traditional Tibetan village, with a rich cultural heritage. The villagers follow Buddhism and are known for their warm hospitality.

130 km

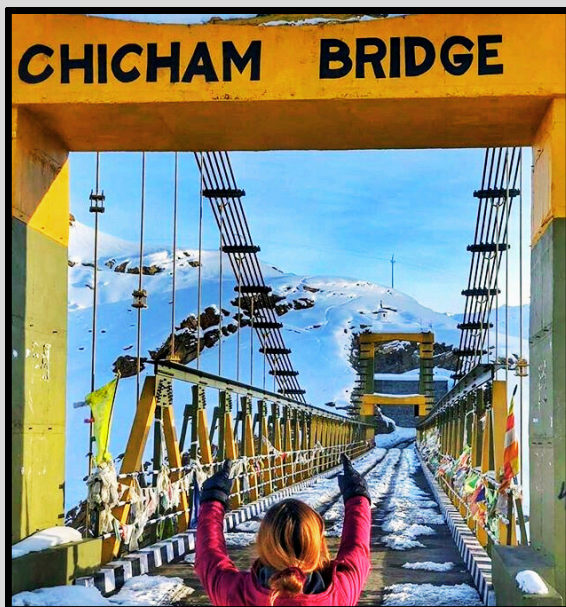

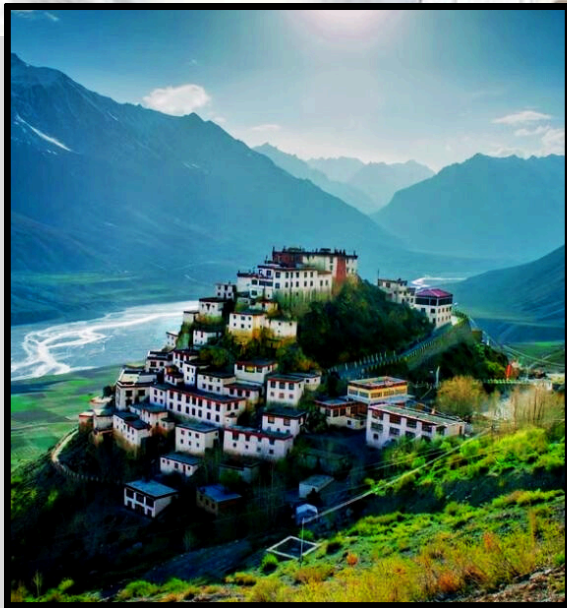

6 hours

14400 ft.

Day 6

Langza to Kaza

Kaza, situated along the Spiti River, it's the largest township and commercial center of the Spiti valley.

Kaza is Traditional Tibetan town with rich heritage culture and Home to famous key monetary and popular base for trekking, hiking and expeditions . Kaza experience harsh winters with temperatures often dropping below -20 degrees

The highest post office in the world at Hikkim villagat an elevation of 14,400 ft is situated 46 km from Kaza.

120 km

5 hours

11980 ft.

Day 7

Kaza to Mud

Mud Village, Spiti Valley, is the last village in the Pin Valley National Park, located in the cold desert region of Spiti. It's a haven for the elusive snow leopard and offers breathtaking views of the Parbati range. Situated on the banks of the Pin River, Mud is nestled at the base of the 1,600m Parbati range, serving as a convenient base for treks in Pin Valley National Park and a gateway to Kullu and Kinnaur districts, making it an offbeat destination with stunning natural beauty.

80 km

3 hours

12500 ft.

Day 8

Mud to Nako

Nako is located near the Indo-China border in the Trans-Himalayan region of Kinnaur district in Himachal Pradesh. Nako is surrounded by breathtaking natural beauty, with the Himalayas towering above and the Spiti River flowing below. A sacred lake with crystal-clear waters, surrounded by willow and poplar trees.

An ancient Buddhist monastery, dating back to the 11th century.

Take a stroll through the village, exploring its narrow lanes, traditional houses, and scenic views.

110 km

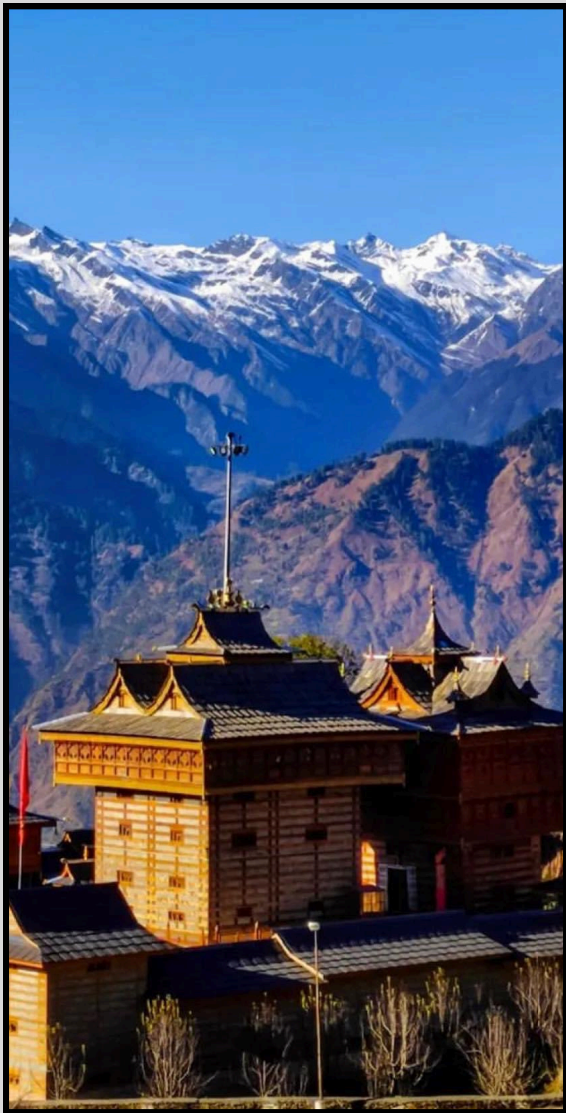

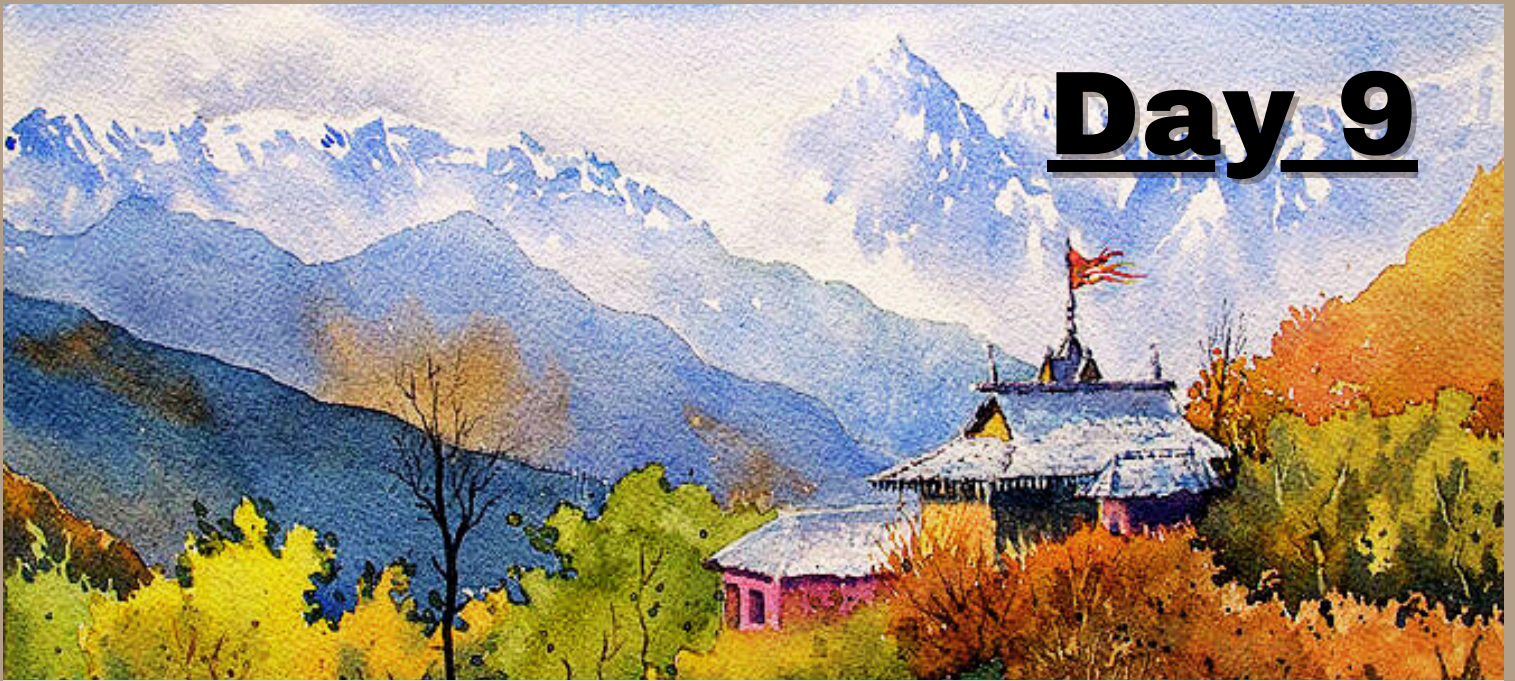

8 hours

12000 ft.

Day 9

Nako to Bhimkali

Tucked away in the picturesque Sarahan valley of Himachal Pradesh, lies the charming village of Bhimakali. Situated near the town of Sarahan, this quaint village is a treasure trove of natural beauty and spiritual significance. The village is home to the renowned Bhimakali Temple, a sacred shrine dedicated to the goddess Bhimakali. This ancient temple is an exemplary model of traditional Himachali architecture, that reflect the region's unique cultural heritage.

180 km

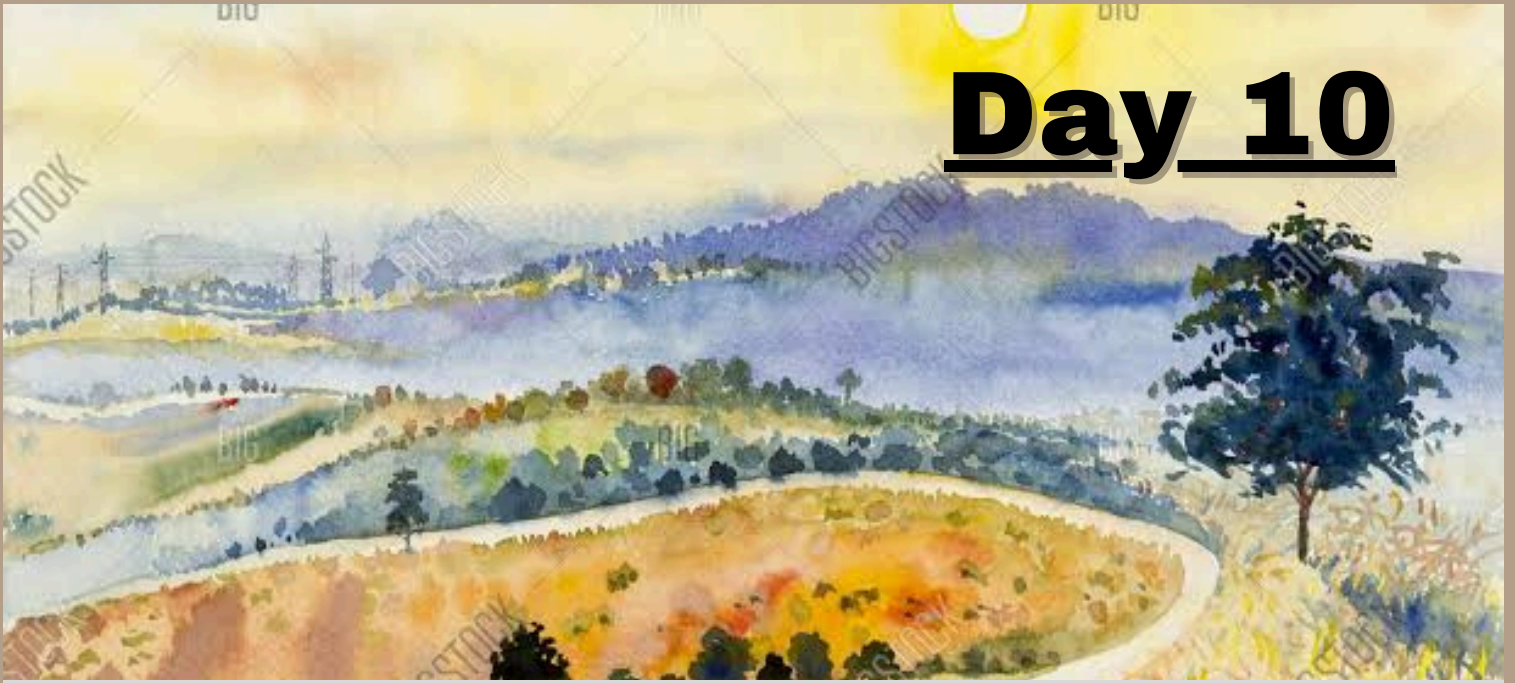

6 hours

7600 ft.

Day 10

Bhimkali to Chandigarh

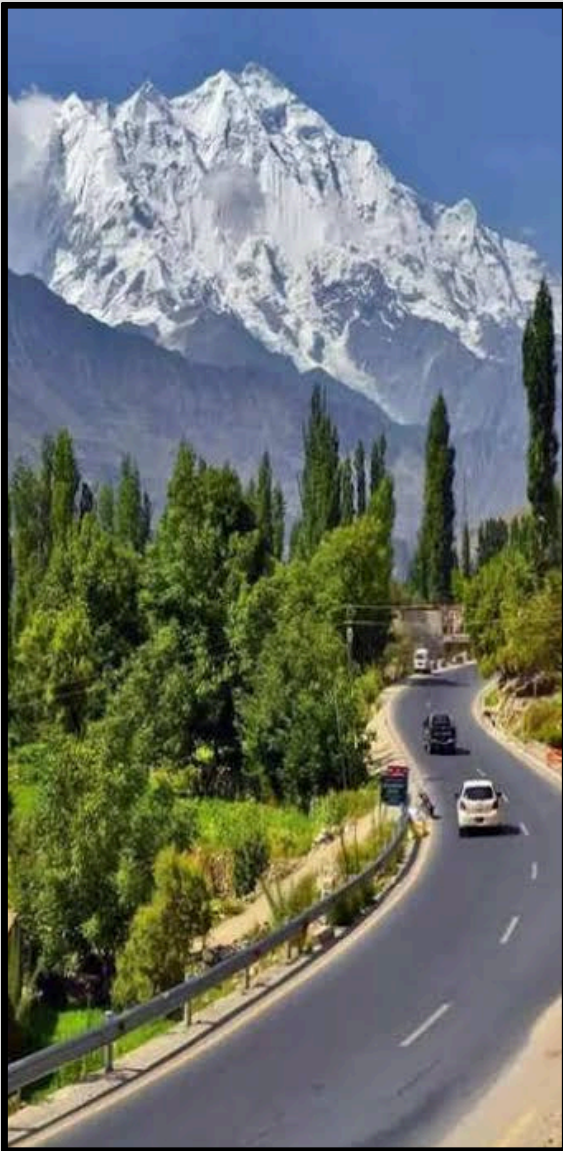

What a wonderful journey!

"It's not goodbye, but until next time. As you depart the enchanting Spiti Valley, carry with you the memories of,

Breathtaking landscapes that left you awestruck,
Warm hospitality that made you feel at home,
Lifelong friendships that will forever be etched in your heart.

The stars will twinkle in your heart, guiding you back to this magical land. Until then, farewell...

Safe travels to Chandigarh, and may the memories of Spiti Valley stay with you forever!"

270 km

9 hours

1053 ft.

Include

- Transport by Innova (Chandigarh to Chandigarh)
- Accommodation in Luxury hotel / home stay (Double sharing basis)
- Breakfast, high tea & dinner (veg)
- Experience tour guide

Exclude

- Flight tickets
- Costs arising out of situation like natural calamity, floods, road blocks or land slides
- Cost on room heater, telephone, laundry, tips and others as well
- Lunch and any personal expenses for food or any other reason
- Travel insurance
- Mineral water and soft drinks
- Any kind of medication, hospitalisation and rescue or evacuation
- Any other expense is not included in the inclusion list

Julley, Tashi-Delek, Namaste, Hello

Reach Us

trinityadventure.in@gmail.com

Find Us

<https://g.co/kgs/UrzL7pt>

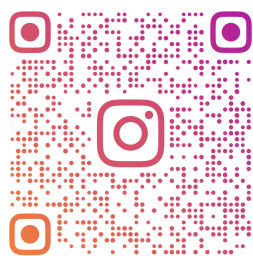

Explore Us

<https://trinityadventure.in>

Call Us

+91 93222 02665

+91 83297 69381

TRINITYADVENTURE_

